

INDEX TO VOL. L.

Abd-el-Wahhab, the Mahomedan Protestant 232
Academy, Royal Irish 123—when instituted 124
 —collection of manuscript books 124
Alphabet, the Ogham 128
America, mainland of, first reached from Iceland 26—excursions into by the Greenland Colonists 28—traditions concerning its early occupation 29
Antiquities, study of 122
Antiquities, collection of in Irish museum 124—how it has been got together 125—articles of ancient Jewellery 145—pin 145—brooches 148
Architecture, Grecian, its gilding and finish 310
Arius, manner of his death 104
Arnarvatnsheidi, desert of, in Iceland 40
Athanasius St. 99
Aurora Borealis 40
Austria, mixed religions of 351—Catholics ranged on both sides in her contest with Hungary 351—her consolidation desirable 352—how far probable 353—happiness of her people 365—mixture of races 366—concessions extorted from her by Hungary 379—takes part with the Croats against the Magyars 385
Bautain, the Abbé, his lectures 326
Baruch, book of 296—proves the practice of praying for the dead 297
Bible, the, difference between ancient and modern criticism of 109
Biørni, son of Heriulf, discovers the mainland of America 25
Bishopsrics, in Piedmont, majority of them vacant for years 225
Books, in the Irish Museum 124— notices of 259, 529
Books, of Kells 139—figures in 139
Borda, the, Arabic poem in honour of Mohammed 279
Brooches, ancient Irish 148
Buonaparte, Prince Lucien, foretold the murder of Count Rosel 220
Burchard, extract from his travels 274
Burton, Mr., extract from his Pilgrimage to Mecca 277
Catalogues 122—that of the Irish Museum 123, 126
Catholics, their grievances in regard to the education of their children 63—exertions to be made at this time 71

Catholics, take different sides in the Austrian contests 351—of weight consider power derivable from the people 412—grounds of resistance to Government 417
Carewe, Sir Robert, his proposal to Queen Elizabeth 506—letter to Ceyll urging it 516
Cavour, Count, extracts from his speeches 217—his persecution of the Church 218—slanders the clergy 226—his character 228—his death a subject of joy 228
Ceyll, his letters concerning the Earl of Desmond 519
Children, Catholic, numbers perverted in the Workhouse schools 66—liable to the Industrial schools act 69
Christianity, its introduction into Iceland 15—its effect upon the literature of the people 17—into Greenland 23
Church, Catholic, no analogy between its early condition and a deprivation now of its temporal power 206—has declared by a general voice for the temporal power 215—mode of teaching as to morals 398—state of in the Highlands 451
Church, Irish, historians of 423—gap in the history of 424
Church, of the East, holding the same doctrines as that of Rome 112—its characteristics 114
Clergy, Catholic, persecution they are undergoing in Italy 221—their numbers formerly in Ireland 438—have little time for literary work 512
Cockerell, Mr., his travels in Greece 303—exhumation of statues from the Temple of Zeus Panhellenius 304—how the English Government lost them 304
Colleges, Irish abroad 443
Commission upon popular education, its report 61—its sins against Catholics 61—would have been remedied by a Catholic Commissioner 61—meagre statistics 71—plans proposed by the Commissioners 76—for amending the instruction 78—further information concerning schools 88
Committee, of the Lower House of Convocation, its report upon the Essays and Reviews 247—course taken by 251—their decision upon the authority of their Church 253—prevailing sentiment against the Essays 256—they adjourn the cause 257

- Communion of Saints*, the difficulties made by Protestants about this article 268—all other sects agree about it 268
- Communities*, religious, springing up in France 327
- Convent of St. Thomas*, in Iceland 23
- Cook*, James, murderer 177
- Corder*, William 173—murder committed by him 174
- Costume*, Irish 138—more ancient 139
- Crime*, difficulties of detection 151
- Croatians*, refuse incorporation with the Hungarians 380—demand to be freed from the Magyars 384
- Cross of Cong* 124
- Curtis*, Mr. Robert, his work "the Irish Police Officer" 188
- Denison*, Archdeacon 247
- Dermot*, Mac Morogh 138
- Desmond*, Gerald, Earl of, his possessions forfeited 501—was not the lawful Earl 501
- Dickens*, Charles, publishes a calumny against the Jesuits 330—Dr. Madden writes to him on the subject 331—with a refutation of the Monita Secreta 333—of which Dickens asserts the authenticity 339—his reply to Dr. Madden 340
- Diet*, Hungarian 368, 371, 381
- Dollinger*, Dr., his advocacy of the Papacy injurious to the cause 198—his first lecture 201—his objection to the Papal Government 203—his conclusions praised by the enemies of the Church 205—his arguments refuted 209—contingencies which he supposes possible as escapes for the Pope 209—complains that his views have been misunderstood 231
- Donaldson*, the late Dr., anticipated the doctrines in the Essays and Reviews 246
- Druses* the, their religion 285
- Edinburgh Review*, part taken by it about the Essays and Reviews 245, 246
- Education* Catholic, no information afforded concerning 61—reasons for this 61—Education of children in workhouse schools 61—compulsory act for the education of pauper children 62—how bad it is 64—sums expended upon the popular education 72
- England*, unhappily a favourer of the Italian revolution 230
- Eric Raude*, sails to Greenland 22
- Essays and Reviews*, the publication, committee appointed to report upon 243—its members not unanimous 244—article upon the work in the Edinburgh Review 245—opinions contained in the work by no means new 246—report upon the work 247—importance of the truths denied in them 251
- Etliya Effendi*, travels of 280—bears testimony to the invocation of Saints by Mahomedans 280
- Faber*, Father, upon modern liberalism 232
- Faculty of Theology*, in the French University 326
- Faroes*, the Islands 7
- Ferdinand*, the Emperor 381—is deposed by the Magyars 383—appoints Jellachich Lieutenant-General 386—abdicates 387
- Fisheries* in Iceland 44
- Forbes*, Captain, his travels in Iceland 6—his excursion to Thingvall 45—to the valley of Hnita 47—to Snæfells Yökul 48—across the Buland-hofdi pass 49—to the Geysers 50—to Hecia 53
- Foster*, Mr., his remarks upon the teaching in poor schools 79
- Francis Joseph*, the Emperor, his message to Parliament 360—abolished the custom-house barriers 375—proclaims a constitution on his accession 388—which incenses the Magyars 389
- Gardelle*, Theodore, a murderer 175
- Genealogies* 340—ancient Gaelic 489
- Geysers*, the 50
- Gods*, the, of ancient Heathendom 270
- Golden Beetle*, legend of 154
- Government*, Theory of, as taught by the Church 397—Theory of Divine right 399—of government delegated by the people 399—those of the middle ages, contained some balance 401—changes in the 16th century 402—ending in absolute governments 403—extreme doctrines 404—Catholic opinions concerning 408—prima facie governments to be obeyed 414—when resistance to is lawful 414—instances 416
- Grant*, the, capitulation 73—its advantages to Catholics 73
- Greenacre*, circumstances of the murder he committed 171
- Greenland*, discovery of from Iceland 21—is colonized by Eric Raude 22—introduction of Christianity 23—further discoveries 24—ruin of the colonies in Greenland 32—fresh settlements made in the last century 33
- Gunnbiorn*, lands in Greenland 21
- Hanse*, the, influence of the corporation upon trade 36
- Hecia*, Mount 53
- Heretics*, mode of judging them 110
- Honn*, mountain of 47
- Holloway*, John, murders Celia Bashford 185
- Hug*, Dr. 319
- Hungary*, views of her Catholic people 351—difficulties to her consolidation with Austria 357—has her fair number of representatives 358—forfeited her rights by the Revolution 361—her constitution 368, 372—political parties 376
- Hungarians*, the, fallacy of their appeal to the constitution of 1848 364—once the barrier of Eastern Europe 366—the Hungarian peasantry, their condition 369—conduct during the Revolution of 1848 379—nature of the constitution then extorted 382—their disputes with the Croats 379, 381, 383—a mediator appointed between them 384.
- Iceland* 2—reasons why it is worthy attention 2—its scenery 4, 46—travellers there 5—proposed site of the North Atlantic Telegraph 8—appearance of the country 12—change of climate 13—and in the products of the soil 13—first discovery of 14—progress of the colony 15—introduction of Christianity 15—government of the country 16—present condition of the population 36—description of their dwellings 36—desert in the interior 40
- Icelanders*, their moral condition 38—their trade 41—their fisheries 44
- Innisfail*, design of the poem 461—extracts 463
- Ireland*, disadvantages of literature in 314—parallel between her position with England and that of Hungary with Austria 353—her condition in 1600, 500
- Islands*, the Faroe 7—the Westmann 10

Italy, approaching to her '89 and '93, 197—has much to undergo for purification 216—principles upon which her revolution is conducted 221

Itinerary Hebrew, translation of published by Hottinger 289—that of Rabbi Petachia 289

James, Fitzgerald, the Tower Earl 507, 508—his life in prison 509—his expenses there 510—his physics 513—letter requesting liberty 515—is set at liberty 518—his treatment afterwards 520

James, Earl of Desmond, assumes his title 502—receives a letter thereupon from the Earl of Ormond 503—his reply 504—takes up arms 504

Jelf, Mr., his Essay 250, 253—his address to the convocation 254

Jellachich, Baron Joseph 380—proposes the overthrow of Kossuth 384

Jesuits, in France 327—their colleges 327—calumnies against them 330—formerly in Ireland 441

Jews, the, pray to the dead 286—and through their merits 287—their practices in different lands 287—proved from the Talmud 291—and Wagensail 291—their similarity in doctrine with the Samaritans 293

John, Archduke, appointed to mediate between the Magyar and the Croatsians 384

Jovett, Mr., his Essay 250

Jupiter, Temple of 306—list of its sacred vessels 303—exquisite sculpture of the Pediments 310

Kossuth 384—his proceedings drive the Hungarians from Pesth 385—a fugitive 300

Kollugia, Icelandic village, its destructions by icebergs 56

Krisneik, sulphur district route to 42

Lane, Mr., his account of saint worship in Egypt 275

Language, their own, dear to all people 373—the Croatian 374

Laws, power of making and enforcing 413

Lectures upon ancient manuscripts 478

Leif, son of Eric Hauke, promotes religion in Greenland 23—his voyage of discovery 27

Literature of Iceland 2, 16, 19

Literature, Catholic, contributions to it from Ireland 314—from Germany 314—from France 315

MacCarthy, Florence, his policy in the struggles of Munster 505

Magyars, the, attempt to impose their language on the people 373—their law to that effect 377—constant opposition to Government 377—at open war with the Croatsians 384—ask assistance of the Austrian Government 385—murder General Lambert 385—and General Latour 386—pass their declaration of independence 389—at last recognise equal rights 390—are finally defeated 390

Mahomedanism, mistakes of Protestants concerning its doctrines 271—permits the worship of departed saints 273—also of aims for the dead 284

Mantle, the ancient Irish 137

Manuscripts, Montfortian 322, 323

—materials for ancient Irish history 475—lectures upon them 478—many lost 479—great collections of 480—classification of 491

—the "chief books" of 481—historic tales 488—genealogies 489

Maria Theresa, her great act 359

Miracle, supposed to take place at Ezechiel's Tomb 289

Miracles, the doctrine of 102—believed by Mahomedans 273

Monita Secreta, a spurious document attributed to the Jesuits 332—refutation of 336—condemned at different times 338

Monothestic religions 271—consistent with the invocation of saints 294

Montalembert, Count, his defence of the Church 218

Moran, Dr., his life of Dr. Plunket 425

Murder, the Road 153—that by Greenacre 171—of Waterloo Bridge 173—by Corder 173—by Theodore Gardelle 175—by Cook 177—by Professor Webster 180—by J. hu Holloway 185—of Begbie 193—of Little 193

Napoleon, Louis, his policy 197

Niebuhr, his anecdotes of the invocation of Saints by Mahomedans 272

Nobility, foreign and English, distinctions for 348

Novel, a, turning upon the subject of divorce 235

O'Curry, Professor, his lectures 478, 487, 495

Ogham stones 127

Ogham characters 128

Ohsson, M. de, his mention of Ottoman Saints 274

Owen, Mr., his version of the communion of Saints 268

Parkman, Dr. 180

Peasantry, Hungarian 369

Peter the Great, description of by Stanley 120

Pin, antique Irish 145—ring pins 146

Plunket, Archbishop Oliver, recovery from Rome of documents concerning 425—goes to Rome with F. Scarampo 428—adventures on road 429—presentation to the Queen 434—journey to Holyhead 435—order for his apprehension 436—his labours 437—accounts of the state of religion in Ireland 445—his expenditure 450—his disguises 454

Poe, Edgar Allan, his legend of the Golden Beetle 154—his analytical skill 167—described in another story 167

Pope, the, his present difficulties 196—defenders of his rights Montalembert and Bellingier 198—his declaration that the temporal power is necessary for the Church 214—general voice in favour of the same opinion 215—necessity now greater than ever 229

Prophecies of the Irish Saints 494

Queen Elizabeth 506

Reading, the art of, badly taught in poor schools 80

Religions monothestic, equally with the Catholic, enforce the worship of departed Saints 271—could not if corrupt be restored to a primitive state 283—the Mahomedan nation professing it 272—its doctrines concerning departed saints 273—and living ones 284 and aims for the dead 284—the Jewish 286

Remonstrance, the, in Ireland 433

Revolution, Italian, chief actors in it 221—some of its events 221—infringement of personal liberty 223

Reykjavik, capital of Iceland 11.

- Linuccini*, the Nuncio, censures issued by him in Ireland 430
Rome, the great difficulty to the modern liberals 195—why it is bound to the Popes 215
- Saints*, doctrine of the intercession of the 269—Protestant theories concerning 269—allowed in the Mahomedan religion 273—instance of proved from native writers 273—consistent with monotheism 294—historical antiquity of well worth considering 295—the doctrine derived by all religions from the ancient Jews 296—brought by the Apostles as an old doctrine into the Church 297—Christian invocation of the Saints 298—Influence of the Arian controversy upon this doctrine 301
- Samaritans*, the, pray to the saints 293—led to believe they had co-religionists in England 294—their correspondence 294—cannot be proved that they have borrowed from Jew or Gentile 300
- Schemnitz*, town of 377
Scheikh Achmed ibn Musa 273
Schools, Sunday, the great point of the dissenters 63
Schools Workhouse, condemnation of them by the Commissioners 64
Schools, district, an improvement 66—separate required for Catholic children 68
Schools, reformatory 68—Industrial 68—defects in the mode of instruction in them 80, 82—the amount of teaching that can be given in them 83—infant 85
Searampo, Father 428
Scribe ancient, illustration of 137
Scalonia 356, 371, 372.
Shirley, Mr., his history of the aristocracy of England 342—his test for nobility 343—Catholic families included 345
Skaptar-Yokul, its eruption in 1783, 56
Slavaks, their address to the Emperor of Austria 391
Snorro Sturleson 21—his bath 48
Stanley, Professor, his history of the Eastern Church 92—its coldness of feeling 100—his criticism of St. Athanasius 102—aversion to admit miracles 102—his opinion of the councils of the Church 105—his defence of heresiarchs 109—quotations from 114
Statue, Ivory eye of 309
Statues, Greek, sale of 304—from Philalela 312
Stone, curious in Wales 128—inscriptions upon 130—its archeological interest 133—the Marian 134—stone from the County of Kerry 135
Stones, Ogham 127—some of them of Christian origin 134—illustrations of 135—only one bearing a pagan character 136
Sulphur in Iceland 43
Summits, the, build villages round the tombs of their saints 273
Surturbrand, beds of drift wood 46
- Saecheny*, Count, his bridge 373
Toafe, forger of a Bull in Ireland 432
Taylor, Mr. Isaac, his work on Ancient Christianity 269
Temple of Zeus Panhellenius 323, 307, 308
Temple of Jupiter 307, 308—exquisite sculpture of the Pediments 310
Temples, Grecian 306
Text of the three witnesses 320
Tighernach, annals of 493
Times, the, suits public taste in foreign policy 350—upon the past and present state of Ireland 354, 356—inconsistency of judgment between Austria and Piedmont 358
Transylvania 365, 371
- Universities*, Catholic 313—suppressed at the Revolution 325
Urbarium of Maria Theresa 369—the new Urbarium 371
Utlegumenn, Icelandic outlaws 39
- Valroger*, M. de, desires to incite the French clergy to the study of the Scriptures 315—makes use of the learning of German Protestants 316—extract from his work 317
Vere, Mr. Aubrey de 459—his poem 462
Victor Emmanuel, hopeless to expect justice from him 226
Vincent, Rev. H. J., curious stone upon his property 129—133
Vinland (or Massachusetts) excursions into from Greenland 28
- Wagnsell* concerning the Jews 291
Walford, Mr., his History of the County Families 342—somewhat too lax in his rule 345—examples of his style taken from Catholic families 346
Webster, John W., murders Dr. Parkman 180
Westmann Islands—off Iceland 10
Whist, game of, powers which it requires 168
Wilde, Dr., his catalogue of Irish Antiquities 126—his illustrations of Irish costume 138—from a book cover 142—from dead bodies 143
Wilson, Dr., his Bampton Lecture 257—does not believe in the Communion of Saints 257
"Witnesses," Text of the Three 320
Woods, their effect upon the climate 14
Writing, Ogham, date of its introduction 130—taken from ancient crosses 141
- Ximenes*, purchaser of manuscripts 321
Fotula, in Iceland 9
- Zeus Panhellenius*, temple of 303
Zul-ymah Abu, Turkish patron of the Seas 278

